

An April Shroud (A Dalziel and Pascoe Novel)

By Hill, Reginald

Harper, London, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 12mo - over 6¾" - 7¾" tall. Brand new. Inspector Pascoe may take holidays but Death never does - and neither, it seems, does Superintendent Dalziel. A watery accident on a solitary country holiday leads to the Fat Man drying off in Lake House, a nearby mansion well past its prime. The same cannot be said for its owner, the fulsome Mrs Fielding. She has only recently buried her husband, but seems more concerned with her future. Dalziel's curiosity is aroused - purely professionally, of course - and by the time Pascoe's honeymoon is over, there have been several more deaths and Dalziel might have compromised himself beyond redemption.
