B-278082 standards provide guidelines for maintaining independence, planning and conducting audits, and reporting audit findings and are incorporated into the audit divisions internal audit manual. This manual is being updated to OIOS establishment. In addition, most reflect certain changes made since of the audit divisions staff have advanced degrees and many are accountants. The staff have been trained in auditing techniques and take continued education courses, including those sponsored by the Institute of O. GA Internal Auditors and U. S. government agencies, including After was established and the Investigations Section head had been OIOS appointed, the section began developing an investigations manual, which includes standards for conducting its work. This manual is similar in many respects to those used by U. S. law enforcement agencies. According to a S OIO former Department of State employee who helped develop investigations manual, about a dozen manuals from other organizations, including some U. S. law enforcement agencies, were used to develop the manual. In addition, most of the investigation staff are trained in investigative techniques. The head of the unit and the senior investigator also have law degrees. The Central Monitoring and Inspection Unit and the Central Evaluation Unit do not have comparable manuals. The head of the Central Monitoring and Inspection Unit told us that the unit does not have written standards for conducting its work but employs a variety of quality control processes. These include requiring documentary evidence for factual information in OIOS inspection reports and using a newly implemented review process by...
