Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Born with a brave heart and an in your face attitude, Sox was also born with a leg that was not quite right. His courage and complete disregard for his handicap inspire his little friend Emma. Young Emma Struggles with a learning disability. This lonely child befriends Sox and an unbreakable bond is formed. Readers share in Sox s adventures, his friends, and his challenges. Sox is a heart-warming tale for every child who has ever dreamed of a special horse, and for anyone who has loved an equine partner. Web Site: Author Blog: / I found it fascinating to experience the life of Sox as told by him. Author Jackie Anton weaves an interesting tale from the horse s point of view. Readers of all ages will find the shared challenges, and closeness that develop between Sox and his human friend Emma throughout the story both entertaining and heartwarming. -- Tom Mach, author of Angels at Sunset Anton deftly reveals how Sox is being weaned from being a suckling foal and Emma, too is separated from her mother deployed in Iraq. Eventually, the reader captures a universal truth as Anton skillfully develops the relationship between Emma and Sox- the truth that humans can allow themselves to be one with all of creation. Animal lovers will find this book irresistible. - Jackie O Neal, President O Neal Media Author Services.
