Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In the Big-Bang-cosmos mythology everything that exists in the universe exists in atomic form. A giant explosion is deemed to have created all the matter in the universe. Every sun in every galaxy is deemed to be atomic in nature, powered by fusing its hydrogen atoms into helium, whereby it burns itself out. That's the theory. The reality is the opposite of it. In the real universe, according to evidence, almost nothing exists as atomic matter. Every sun in every galaxy is a sphere of plasma, which is powered by electric interaction at its surface, with cosmic plasma that flows through the galaxies. The Plasma Universe is not entropic in nature, but is self-creating and self-sustaining by the nature of space that is energy itself; which is a concept pioneered by David Bohm, whom Einstein had referred to as his successor. In the real universe, nothing is running down towards an eventual energy depletion death. In fact, the universe is anti-entropic and expanding and progressing. We, ourselves are evidence of this progression. Neither is...
