Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Discourse: Delivered Before the Rhode-Island Historical Society, on the Evening of Wednesday, January 13, 1847 Gentlemen of the Historical Society: In consequence of my compliance with the request of your committee - a compliance, perhaps, unfortunate both for you and me - it has become my duty to address you, and our fellow-citizens generally, upon a purely Rhode-Island theme. I shall, accordingly, speak to you of that Idea of Government, which was actualized, for the first time in Christendom, here in this State, by those who described themselves as a poor colony, consisting mostly of a birth and breeding of the Most High, formerly from the mother-nation in the bishops days, and latterly from the New-England over-zealous colonies. I shall speak to you of the origin of this idea - of the various forms which it took, in its progress toward its realization here, in minds of much diversity of character and creed; and of that lively experiment, which it subsequently held forth, that a most flourishing civil state may stand, and be best maintained,...
