A marriage certificate, when accompanied by proof of the identity of the parties, is admissible to prove marriage in a prosecution for adultery. An extra judicial confession by defendant of his marriage is not alone, sufficient proof thereof to sustain a conviction of adultery. On a prosecution for adultery, the husband of the one with whom he is alleged to have committed the offense may testify to his marriage to her. A wife who has instituted prosecution of her husband for adultery cannot testify that she is his wife: ? How. An. Stat.. section 7546. providing...

Reviews

This is the very best book i actually have read till now. It is loaded with knowledge and wisdom I am just easily could get a satisfaction of reading a created ebook.
